Christopher Johnston, Hudson Catholic Regional High School (NJ), Asst. Head Coach & Complete QB, Founder/Director

Coach Johnston just completed his sixth season with the Hudson Catholic (HC) Hawks. Hudson Catholic has gone to the NJSIAA Non-Public Group 2 State Playoffs all six years, losing in the 2015 State Championship Finals and 2018 Semi-Finals. Under Coach Johnston, the offensive team has twice broken the team record for points scored; as well as TD receptions and overall receptions. For the past four years, his QB has earned All-League or All-County Honors. Coach Johnston was previously the QB Coach at Poly Prep in Brooklyn, NY. Prior to Poly, Coach Johnston was the QB and DB Coach for his first stint at HC.

Coach Johnston's assessment and coaching skills have earned him a solid reputation among his coaching peers. Complete QB has trained thousands of youth, HS, and college QBs since 2000. Dozens of Complete QB Alumni are currently playing in all NCAA Divisional levels. In addition to his on-field coaching experience, Coach Johnston's expertise has afforded him regular opportunities to appear on a variety of sports talk radio shows regarding NCAA and NFL Quarterback play. In addition, Coach Johnston has authored many football coaching articles and NCAA/NFL analysis pieces.

Coach Johnston lives in Brooklyn, NY with his wife Renee and their son, Nazareth. He also has a daughter, Memphis, and older son, Rush who played HS and College football and is currently under contract in the AFL.
