Brian Mazzone, Stafford/Somers/East Windsor Co-op Head Coach

Coach Mazzone recently completed his third season as head coach of the Stafford/Somers/East Windsor Co-op. Mazzone has a record of 22-8 in three seasons, was Pequot Eastern Division Coach of the Year in 2015, and Co-Conference Coach of the Year in 2016. SSEW, which had not posted a winning season since 1996, has qualified for the Connecticut CIAC Class S Playoffs each of the past two years. This past season SSEW went 10-2 and competed in the Class S Semifinals.

Prior to coming to Stafford Coach Mazzone had previous stints as an assistant at Enfield High (2000), Fermi High (2005-2009), and Ellington High (2004, 2010-2014). He held a wide range of titles including freshman coach, JV coach, special teams coordinator, offensive and defensive line coach, receivers coach, defensive coordinator and associate head coach.

Coach Mazzone is a class of 2000 graduate of Enfield High and 2004 graduate of Westfield State and played as a lineman for both schools.

Coach Mazzone is an English teacher at Enfield High School and he lives in Enfield with his wife Kelly and his two sons Brodie and Brock.
