Jermetrius Troy, Noble and Greenough School, Head Coach

2016 marks Coach Troy's 2nd year as the head coach. Coach Troy is a graduate of Tilton where he earned consecutive All N.E. & All League honors. In his first year, Tilton went undefeated and won a New England Championship. The following year, as a team captain, Troy led the team to another N.E. Championship appearance gaining over 1,000 all-purpose yards. Following Tilton, he went on to play at Stonehill College under Coach Rob Talley where he ended his career 4th all-time in rushing and 5th all-time in rushing touchdowns.

After his playing career, Coach Troy served one year at Cheshire Academy as the Co-Defensive Coordinator and defensive back coach to David Dykeman winning a New England Championship. Prior to Nobles, Coach Troy was the head coach at Holderness School. While under the direction of Coach Troy, Holderness placed their first two Division 1 players in program history. Coach Troy is an active member of the American Football Coaches Assoc. and in addition to his role as Head Football Coach he will also work as an Assistant Director of Admissions.
